For non-EU candidates the expiry date must not be before December of the year of finishing the IFROS studies. For example, for IFROS <<Starting year>>-<<Finishing year>> the expiry date has to be minimum December <<Finishing year>>. It is possible to apply with a passport which does not fulfil this condition. However, it is important to apply for the new passport immediately after receiving the acceptance to the programme. In case of the applicants from countries where the application for the new Passport takes longer than one month, it is highly recommended to apply for the new passport in advance.

1. my capacity to fully finance my participation for the full programme duration. □

(i.e. duly signed certificates from a third party such as parents, sponsor, government or other grant providing institution stating the exact amount they commit themselves paying to you on a monthly basis (or other basis) and confirming that this amount is specifically allocated for payment of your fees and cost of living).

In case of a financial sponsor, if the organisation requires an invoice/letter, then you'll need to enter, in addition to the previous certificate, their details:
